PARTY WITH A PURPOSE AT COMMUNITY ROCKS

SAM ROBERTS BAND performs live at Community Living Toronto's biggest fundraising event! This will be our 5th Community Rocks event, and we are celebrating it on the United Nations "International day of Persons with Disabilities". This years theme is Mardi Gras! Expect amazing food, a musical parade, and a fun after party!

Friday November, 25, 2016 – Toronto – On December 3, 2016, Community Living Toronto will be hosting Community Rocks, the Association's fundraiser celebrating individuals with an intellectual disability. The Queen Elizabeth Theatre will host the Mardi Gras themed event featuring a cocktail reception of tasty food inspired by New Orleans' culinary tradition, and fantastic live entertainment including Sam Roberts Band, The Happy Pals, and an after-party with a live DJ.

Media are invited to attend:

WHAT: Community Rocks

WHO: Hosted by Ben Mulroney

PERFORMANCE BY: Sam Roberts Band

MUSICIANS: The Happy Pals

DJ: Raptor Marc

For over 70 years, Community Living Toronto has been a source of support for thousands of individuals with intellectual disabilities and their families searching for accessible and meaningful, community-based lifestyles. We strive to change the lives of people with an intellectual disability by giving them a voice and supporting their choices where they live, learn, work and play.
